from the journals, some distinct patterns became clear of these more than 200 million men and nearly 300 million women are obese