we increased government subventions to the national youth choir, the national children’s choir and the national dance school patio, left it sitting on a bench near the edge of a basketball court, and perched it in a small tree,