the main thing is to accept that you are going or have gone bald and then look at what can be done about it