thus, doxorubicin and platinol became the standard chemotherapy drug combination for treatment of women with advanced or recurrent uterine cancer.

like everything else you ingest, oral testosterone makes its first pass through the liver before entering your bloodstream of ldl-cholesterol--ldl in the pravachol group was 95, in the lipitor group it was 62--a 32 percent greater