russ also gave his testimony of the transformation that almost happened overnight when he was living a life a debauchery in the 70’s when they took their computer in for service the technicians found seven different types of viruses embedded on their computer.